

Factoring Defined

Factoring is the process by which a business can receive cash immediately in return for its outstanding receivables from customers and clients. Funding is usually quick and efficient.

However, factoring does require the business owner to make some important decision. The most important decision is determining the factoring company to use. In choosing the factoring company, you must consider the discount or interest rate, structuring of the transactions, administrative requirements and other such factors.

Factoring Companies Ready to Assist You Today

- Funding is ready and waiting
 - Funding is quick and efficient
 - Factoring companies look to build long term relationships with clients
-

We serve small businesses nationwide with factoring services.

Call us today or email us to discuss your factoring needs.

Toll Free 1-877-457-2550, Local 770-457-2550

Email info@fgfservices.com